Honorable Hale C. Boggs
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Boggs:

Since your call to me concerning [redacted], our people who were considering his employment with us have completed their exploration. They advise me that there seems to be no possible opportunity for his service with us at this time.

STAT

[redacted] has some excellent qualifications and the fact that he has worked for the Agency in the past makes him even more attractive. In spite of his willingness to accept a substantial salary cut, however, we do not have a requirement at this time which would approach his level.

I appreciated your calling me about [redacted]. His interest is well known to us and we will keep him in mind for future opportunities.

Sincerely,

STAT

Since I talked with you last Friday, I have checked out your situation here and found it to be as I indicated to you. As matters now stand, there seems to be no appropriate opportunity for us to take advantage of your interest in us.

I enjoyed meeting with you and want to express our appreciation for the time you have spent exploring matters here. You may be sure that we will get in touch with you if anything suitable should open up.

Sincerely,

/s/ Emmett D. Echols
